Dear Mr Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter of December 28 last year. I did in fact read the American edition of Whitewash and look forward to its appearance here. It may then be possible to do something about it in the Book Pages of the Evening Standard, where we notice books available to London readers (i.e. published in England).

Thank you also for telling us of Mr Gordon Manhood. I shall certainly get in touch with him should occasion arise.

With good wishes to you for 1967,

Sincerely

Anthony Hern
